ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children,
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely!
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples.
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather and bring to thee gracious salutations.
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus;
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

DAVID S. BRODER
COLUMNIST,
The Washington Post

David Broder is one of the nation's best known and most respected political commentators. National political correspondent and columnist for The Washington Post, his syndicated columns appear in more than 300 newspapers across the United States and abroad. He received the 1973 Pulitzer Prize for distinguished commentary.

Broder began his career in journalism in 1953 with The Daily Pentagraph in Bloomington, Illinois. Since that time, he has worked for Congressional Quarterly, The Washington Star, and The New York Times. He joined the staff of The Washington Post in 1966, and was named associate editor in 1975.

Broder is the author of two books, Behind the Front Page: A Candid Look at How the News is Made, and Changing of the Guard: Power and Leadership in America.
